H.R. 4500 To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to enhance the equity for women under the tax laws by allowing a spousal Individual Retirement Account of 2,000 dollars, by treating alimony as compensation for purposes of the deduction for Individual Retirement Account contributions, to increase the credit for dependent care expenses for low and moderate income taxpayers, and for other purposes.

H.R. 5288 To amend the Federal Financing Bank Act of 1973 to insure the proper budgetary treatment of credit transactions of Federal agencies.

H.R. 5640 To amend the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980.

H.R. 5821* To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to allow taxpayers to disregard certain retroactive administrative and judicial interpretations of such Code.

H.R. 5888 To provide for medicare demonstration projects for alternative medicare benefits for individuals with Alzheimer's disease or a related memory disorder.

H.R. 5975 To provide that certain activities performed in space and certain articles produced in space shall be treated as activities performed and articles produced within the United States for purposes of any tax or tariff law of the United States.

H.R. 6021 To repeal the changes made by the Tax Reform Act of 1984 with respect to the tax treatment of debt instruments issued for property.

H.Con.Res. 85 Expressing the sense of the Congress that the provisions contained in section 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 relating to the adjustment of income tax brackets to prevent inflation-caused tax increases should not be repealed and the effective date of such provisions should not be postponed.

H.Con.Res. 115 Expressing the sense of the Congress that the tax reductions and indexing of individual income tax rates enacted by the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981 remain fundamental ingredients to the prolonged economic recovery now underway and that any repeal or delay in those fundamental ingredients clearly jeopardize such recovery.
